

University of South Florida

Start: 6:10

- Some tidbits of information
  - Located in Tampa
  - The dean is still a practicing pharmacist
- Mission Statement:
  - “The mission of the Taneja College of Pharmacy is to Transform Health through educating students to be outstanding and successful practitioners and leaders in the profession; through leading in discovering and innovation of education and practice in pharmacy; and through delivering the highest quality care in diverse, interprofessional clinical and community settings.”
- Special Programs in the school
  - Having 2 student groups that is taking part in a statewide conference to take part in an innovation conference
  - Involved in CDD research
  - Has a pharmaceutical compounding academy
    - Use of plants and how their properties can be used in drugs
  - Want to get involved in clinical trials
  - Entrepreneurial academy
  - High Fidelity Simulation
    - Virtual reality stimulation
- How to transform health care
  - Be able to use biometric trackers and medication optimization to help give better healthcare
  - Innovation of the area of the pharmacy to be more advanced and focused more on deeper patient care
    - EMR system to help communication to the primary care provided directly
  - Use of proactive analytics
    - To give real time information of how the medication is working for the patient
- Everyone has a cash app, there is already securities built in those apps that can brought into healthcare to help track the progress of medication and provide better detail care management

- Want to give community pharmacists the tools and knowledge to be able to able to implement AI and more technological advances
- Barbershop Program - referral network from a barbershop, built protocols with physicians where pharmacists were the first to administer medication for barbershop patients
- Online inquiry form:
<https://usf.us18.list-manage.com/subscribe/post?u=ca33bc398335e0844461f3316&id=f472841647>
- Twitter: @KevinBSneed (Dean)
- Admissions email: pharmacyadmissions@usf.edu

End: 7:02